

Description of duties of physician

- Taking the technical and legal responsibility of health services provided to international patients
- Providing all medical services to international patient as soon as possible according to principles of Medical Ethics
- Presenting the typed record summary in English to the patient which contains the diagnosis, type of provided service, description of the surgery and the recommendations after the discharge
- Providing the contact number and 24-hour access to the doctor for international patient in case of any problems or complications